Text 1

W: Can I help you?

M: I'm looking for a size twelve jacket.

W: Oh, let me see. An eight, a ten. Ah, you're lucky. This is the only one in your size here. Why not try it on?

Text 2

W: Hi, Stephen! Now since you were on the scene, can you tell us more about the accident?

M: OK. The car ran into a truck when the truck was suddenly turning right without any signal. Now it has caused three deaths and five injuries.

Text 3

M: I feel stressed about the coming examination. I have no idea whether I can get a satisfying grade.

W: You'd better not push yourself a lot. I think everything will be fine since you have worked hard.

Text 4

W: Tom, you didn't turn off the light again.

M: That doesn't cost us much.

W: Indeed, that has nothing to do with our expense, but we are supposed to do our bit to reduce the waste of resources.

Text 5

W: So how was your holiday?

M: We enjoyed ourselves in Italy and spent a nice day with my child. How about you?

W: We didn't go to France as planned. Instead, we went to Australia.

M: A nice trip, isn't it?

W: Sure.

Text 6

W: Peter, what are you going to do for your birthday?

M: I was hoping to have a party but most of my friends are too busy finishing the term's work. Instead, I'll go out for a meal with my parents.

W: Well, it's a good idea to spend more time with family. You can see a film after the meal.

M: Thank you, but I have another plan. I'll donate the saved money to the charities for those living in mountainous areas. They are raising money to buy learning tools for the children. Will you go with me?

W: I'd like to.

Text 7

W: William, what do you think of your new school life?

M: Well, the teachers are all nice and kind. But I can't learn physics well because my physics teacher speaks too fast.

W: You are always good at solving problems. What do you do with it?

M: I ask one of my classmates, Mike, for help. He is good at physics and always ready to help others. We often discuss the problems of maths and chemistry together.

W: It sounds great! How about your school food? Do you like the food there?

M: Yeah, it is very delicious.

W: What do you usually do in your free time?

M: You know I like sports, so when I'm free, I often play basketball, do Tai Chi and go swimming.

W: Let's go swimming now, shall we?

M: Good idea. Let's go.

Text 8

W: Hi, David! I heard you bought a new computer last week. What about it?

M: It looks smart and works smoothly. Why do you ask me about this? Do you want to change your old computer?

W: You said it. Recently, it often breaks down halfway and my data would be lost in one minute. The temperature of CPU also rises easily.

M: That's awful! It's time for you to take action.

W: Where did you buy it?

M: I bought it at our local store. But maybe you can buy one on the Internet. Sometimes, it is cheaper than that at the local store.

W: Online shopping is convenient and economic. However, I doubt whether the qualities are the same.

M: You'd better think twice. After all, it costs a considerable amount of money.

Text 9

M: Hi, Mandy. This is Peter.

W: Hi, Peter.

M: I'm calling to ask you to do me a favor. My aunt Lucy will arrive at the airport at three o'clock, but there are so many tasks in my company to be completed. So I can't pick her up. Would you please do that for me?

W: OK. There is forty minutes left before Aunt Lucy arrives at the airport. Time is tight but I can make it. By the way, where will I take her, to your office or your home?

M: You can take her to my home. She has the key and after a long flight she will need a good rest at home. And if you don't have any schedule this evening, I hope we can have dinner together. What do you think of it?

W: That's a good idea. I'd love to have a nice chat with Aunt Lucy.

Good morning, dear camp leaders! I'm Robin. Now, I want to talk to you about a typical day here at our summer camp. The wake-up call will be at 7:00 every morning. When you hear the bell, wake up the kids in your camp house.

There are three activities every day. The first activity session is from 9:00 to 10:30. The second session is from 10:40 to 12:00. Then we give the kids 30 minutes' free time before lunch. Lunch takes about 30 minutes. We usually do some cleaning with the kids after lunch. And the final activity session runs from 4:00 pm to 5:00 pm.

Every evening, we have an activity from 7:00 until 8:30. Then you will go back to the camp houses with your kids and spend some time with them doing something quiet. At 9:00, the kids should get ready for bed. On some nights you will be on duty until 10:30. That means you will stay outside the camp houses and the children can come to you if there's a problem.
